

A fly-fishing retreat for children with cancer and their families

Saturday, August 20, 2011

Reel Kids, Real Living is a fly-fishing adventure designed to develop group support as well as individual skills that can build bonds that provide a reservoir of personal hope. The retreat offers a full day at the Pleasant Valley Fly-fishing Reserve in Markleeville, CA (1.5 hrs south of Reno) at no cost to the participants.

Northern Nevada children (ages 8 to 18) that are in treatment for or recovering from cancer are invited to bring their siblings (ages 8 to 18) and parents to experience a unique day of support and fun in the beautiful outdoors. Space is limited. First time participants have priority.
